ABOUT US

Fortnight Media is a photography and videography company born out of a collaboration between professional photographer/videographer Taylor Wolter and Mike Potts, CEO of Felix and Fingers Dueling Pianos.

As a full-service entertainment company, F&F launched Fortnight Media in order to streamline wedding planning and event execution. Instead of having independent music, photography, and videography vendors, these three services now work in lockstep as a single team.

The concept at Fortnight Media is simple, we'll deliver all your amazing photos and videos within a fortnight (2 weeks), guaranteed. There's nothing worse than not being able to see your wedding photos for weeks, if not months in some cases - we want to end that. We believe exceptional work can be delivered in a reasonable timeframe. We believe a client's experience should be seamless from booking until the moment the files are in your hands. And we believe that having the right team will create something greater than the sum of its parts.

Thank you for your consideration and we look forward to capturing your event in the most extraordinary way possible.

REVIEWS & ACHIEVEMENTS

“ I truly cannot say enough great things about Fortnight Media. We were referred to Fortnight Media by our wedding planner. Rob and Luke (our videographers) were both professional, flexible, personable, and overall great to work with.

My wife and I have minimal experience in front of the camera, but our videographers made us feel completely comfortable and confident. We had access to a 1-minute preview video of our wedding day the very next morning and we were blown away with how well they were able to capture the overall vibe. We feel we can look back at our wedding video and truly relive this special day time and time again.

Excellent quality, great communication, and very professional!

“They are the best photos we have ever had taken and they look so natural and candid.”

- Laura P.

“The talent of our photographer was incredible, not only did we get some amazing family portraits, but many of the photos were true pieces of art.”

- Meg S.

James & Tim, our Photographers at Fortnight

were the absolute greatest and so much fun! They were punctual, professional and they seemed to always be where the action was taking place! The video that they shot at our wedding was everything we were expecting and more!

My husband and I are so pleased that we chose Fortnight Media to shoot our wedding! A+++++ Service!
